Success

Will crown the efforts of the firm whose motto is "special favors to none"—selling goods as represented and at the same price to all buyers—not deviating an iota from the quoted prices. Space will not permit the mention of our many brands of Wines and Liquors—all of which are good—suffice it to call your attention this week to the brand, the crowning quality of which has caused it to radiate throughout Virginia—in fact, the entire country—till it has reached its acme in the beverage world. With these few remarks we place before you our celebrated

LYNCHED BY NIGHT RIDERS.

Thirty or more masked and heavily armed night riders on Monday night kidnapped and forced from their hotel in the little village of Walnut Log, Tenn., on Reelfoot Lake, Capt. R. Z. Taylor, of Treason, Tenn., together with a surveyor and guide, and it is believed, lynched the four.

Capt. Rankin's body was found by a searching party from Walnut Log, hung to the limb of a tree on the shore of Reelfoot Lake and filled with rifle and revolver bullets and buckshot.

Judge Taylor's body is still being sought for, as are the bodies of the surveyor and the guide, men reading on the Reelfoot border. From remarks made by the masked mob, the residents of Walnut Log believed that each man was hung and shot-riddled in a different place along the lake shore.

The cause of his triple murder dates back two years or more to the time when Judge Taylor and Capt. Rankin, acting for a syndicate in which they allegedly have been large stockholders, began to buy all the land bordering on Reelfoot Lake, a beautiful sheet of water many miles in extent, which ever since it was formed by the New Madrid Bend earthquakes of 1811 and 1812, has been known from Mexico to Canada for the sport its inexhaustible fish supply afforded to anglers and its feeding grounds to duck and geese hunters.

The closing of this great lake to local fishermen, and more especially the cutting off of the secret earnings of many families who served as rangers as business and guides, raised a storm of indignation, and the firm of Taylor & Rankin, who engineered the purchase, and who secured the iron-bound charter under which the first Tennessee land company operates, received many death warnings.

Armed posses organized in Obion and Lake counties, in both of which the lake lies were yesterday scouring the country around the lake, and it is possible that state troops may be called out.

Gov. Patterson, of Tennessee, has offered a reward of $10,000 for the arrest and conviction of any one or more of the lynchers, and the families of Rankin and Taylor will increase this by private offers.

NARROW ESCAPE

The timely intervention of a physician, who was not satisfied with the appearance of the body, yesterday prevented the burial alive of Mrs. Thomas Chapman, 60 years old, who was supposed to have died suddenly of heart disease on Saturday, at Ellis, Kansas. The body was prepared for burial, but was not embalmed. The funeral was to have taken place at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. A few minutes before the coffin was sealed a physician requested to see the body. After confirming his suspicions that the woman's body was made rigid by suspended animation, the woman was removed from the coffin, placed in bed and revived. While her heart is weak, it is believed that Mrs. Chapman will recover.

WOMAN FELS ASSAULTED.

Mrs. George M. Wyatt, widow of the agent for the Old Dominion Steamship Company, in Richmond, last night put to flight a negro who had attacked her on the street. The negro stepped from a dark alley and confronted Mrs. Wyatt while she was on her way to visit a relative. After cautioning the woman not to cry out, he caught her by the arm and attempted to drag her into the alley. Mrs. Wyatt had no intention of submitting without a struggle. She struck the man in the face with her clenched hand, staggering him. In the darkness the negro stumbled and fell, and Mrs. Wyatt, instead of resting when the way was clear, stood her ground and kicked her assailant in the ribs while he was down. All the nerve was taken out of the negro, who beat a hasty retreat as soon as he could regain his feet.

CANAL WORK ESTIMATES.

Estimates for continuing work on the Panama canal have been completed by Lieut. Col. George W. Goethals, chairman and chief engineer of the commission, and have been submitted to the secretary of war for submission to Congress. The sum of $35,000,000 is requested for the work during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1909. This is an increase over the estimates submitted last year of about $4,000,000. The appropriation last year for the current fiscal year was $27,000,000.

SHOT FATHER FOR BURGLAR.

Mistaking his father for a burglar whom he was chasing from the house with a shotgun, Earl Smith dangerously wounded L. L. Smith, his father, at the Smith home in Norfolk yesterday morning. The elder Smith is employed by the Merchants and Miners' Transportation Company, and worked late. When he entered the house Monday night his son was pursuing a burglar in the darkness. The boy didn't hear his father enter, and ran into him, and, thinking he was the burglar, he fired. The burglar escaped by the back way. It is expected that the injured man will recover. The younger Smith was arrested, and afterward released when the facts were ascertained.
